

The Indiana Telephone privacy act has stopped about all unwanted calls for my household and should not be changed. It's my belief the the FCC should not change any action or law that would hinder the In. telephone privacy act for it works well. Before In. emplimented this law the phone calls was driving me nuts now I know when my phone rings it's someone that I usually want to speak with. Thank you. CH